Guzman has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19 and includes convictions for petty theft with prior, disturbing the peace, multiple disorderly conduct, obstruct / resist, multiple burglary, assault on spouse / co-habitant, multiple DUI, suspended license, multiple use / under the influence of controlled substance, 2nd degree burglary, vandalism . Guzman has served multiple state prison terms, the longest a four (4) year term for burglary. Guzman was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 17, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2013 after Guzman absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Guzman qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Guzman is a member of the "Frog Town Gang" with a moniker of "Killer". His prior criminal history, gang membership and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted.
